

1.6 Process Map

Using a top-down approach, the inspection and testing process map describes how the process is structured into a hierarchy of activities that show the sequence of steps each inspection task:

